

The Northeast Florida Healthy Start Coalition is now accepting nominations for the inaugural

Dorothy Wilson Mabry Legacy Award

In Recognition of
Outstanding Accomplishments by a Healthy Start
Participant or Grass-Roots Community Leader

This award is intended to recognize the outstanding efforts and accomplishments of a participant in the Healthy Start program or a grass-roots community leader. The award honors the legacy of Dorothy Wilson Mabry, a community volunteer and advocate, who devoted her life to supporting the empowerment and achievement of young women and vulnerable families. The Wilson Family provided a generous donation in honor of their mother which supports a stipend for the award recipient.

Award Criteria:

- Demonstrated success in achieving personal goals and overcoming challenges which contribute to their health and the well-being of their families.
- Demonstrated leadership and commitment to improving their community.
- Participation in a Healthy Start program and/or the Make a Difference! Leadership Academy.
